

David Crockett Woods II

RANGER (Staff) — Services for David Crockett Woods II, 86, of Ranger, a retired farmer and rancher, were set for 2 p.m. Friday in the Killingsworth Funeral Home Chapel with burial in the Alameda Cemetery.

He died at 5:45 a.m. Wednesday in the Eastland Memorial Hospital after an illness.

Born April 2, 1886, in Ranger, he had resided there all his life. He was married to Carra Jewel Reid Feb. 22, 1914, in Eastland County. She preceded him in death Nov. 8, 1960.

Survivors are three sons, Edward and Alvin of Ranger, and Noel of Fort Worth; two daughters, Mrs. Carra Jewell Owen of Wichita Falls, and Mrs. Lillie Caudle of 1505 East Everglade, Odessa; three brothers, John of Breckenridge, Morris and Orville, both of Ranger; 15 grandchildren, and 15 great-grandchildren.