

Mrs. Hart, Cisco, Dies

CISCO (RNS) — Mrs. Zelma T Hart, 65, lifelong resident here, died in a Dallas hospital Thursday afternoon after an illness of about six weeks.

She lived at 104 E. 18th St.

Funeral will be held at 3 p.m. Friday at the East Cisco Baptist Church with the pastor, the Rev. Ray Hartline, officiating, assisted by the Rev. J.B. Harlin of Dallas. Burial will be in the Corinth Cemetery, east of Cisco, with Rust Funeral Home in charge.

Mrs. Hart was born Nov. 21, 1898 near Cisco and was married to Newt Hart Sept. 15, 1935, in Cisco. She had been a long-time member of the Cisco Baptist Church.

Survivors are her husband; one brother, A.C. Curtis of Dallas. one sister, Mrs. D.E. McBeth of Mt. Pleasant; and several nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers will be Walter Kurklin, Jess Hagan, Clint Brashear, Wayne Webb, H.K. Neely and Don Rupe.